PRICE:
$4,000 ($4,500 minus $500 study abroad grant)

“Almost All-Inclusive” Includes:
• All flights (group flights)
• On-the-ground transportation in Peru
• On-site orientation in Peru
• All hotels
• Most meals (all breakfasts and most lunches and dinners)
• Cultural activities with transportation, entry fees, and guides included:
  • Visit Machu Picchu (one of the 7 Modern Wonders of the World)
  • Visit cultural sites in downtown Lima and Cusco (capital of the Inca Empire)
  • Professional translator/guide who will accompany group on all visits and activities
  • Private guides at historical sites
  • International health insurance

NOT INCLUDED:
• Passport
• Personal spending money (optional activities, souvenirs, etc.)
• A few meals
• Tuition: 3 semester hours during Spring Semester

DATES: March 13 - March 22, 2020

CLASS INFO:
OLHR2011 (BOK: DC &SE)
Tuesdays and Thursdays, 12:30 –1:50pm

APPLY NOW!
Priority Application Deadline: October 14, 2019 *

* Applications reviewed on first-come, first-served basis so spots may fill before deadline

INTERVIEWS:
Students must interview with a program leader before being selected for the program.

ACADEMIC INFORMATION:
• Meet a range of leaders and organizations that are making a difference in their communities and country
• Gain first-hand experience in understanding complex social issues and approaches to improving them
• Organizational focuses and educational topics include: environmental, economic, educational and political issues

APPLICATION:
FOR MORE INFORMATION OR AN APPLICATION, CONTACT:
Faculty Leader, Dr. Jonathan Weller: jonathan.weller@uc.edu
Co-Leader, Benedetta Khoury: Benedetta.khoury@uc.edu
Study Abroad Advisor, Matthew Paul: matthew.paul@uc.edu